LSU Health NEW ORLEANS School of Public Health

Letter from the President:

Hello all,

It's hard to believe it's already March! There are a lot of cool and fun activities happening around New Orleans and our school within the next couple of months!

Our next SGA meeting is March 31st where we will have a lot of speakers from the public health field.

Make sure you are taking full advantage of all the opportunities around campus and the city to make your educational experience as well-rounded and fulfilling as you can.

Let me know if anyone has questions about running for a position next year. Also, as this SGA cabinet's time is coming to an end, let me know if there are any events, speakers, etc. that you would like scheduled before we graduate! Have a great weekend!

The Louisiana State University Health Sciences Center New Orleans has teaching, research, and health care functions state-wide, through its six professional schools and twelve Centers of Excellence, as well as the more than one hundred hospitals and other health science related institutions throughout the State, Region, Nation, and the World, with which they maintain affiliations.

Molly

N.O.W.S. Outreach Program (New Orleans Women's Shelter Outreach)

Want to work with women and kids? N.O.W.S. Outreach is an Albert Schweitzer Fellowship and IPSA-approved program founded by medical students in 2015. Our mission is to empower the women and children at the New Orleans Women's and Children's Shelter (NOWS) to be proactive with their health and wellness by providing health education and physician-student run health clinics. Join almost 200 volunteers from all of the LSU professional schools, including Xavier pharmacy school, to teach health education programs, lead and create new programs, work at the monthly clinics, or participate on committees.

If interested, email to NOW-Soutreach@gmail.com get on our email list.
