

LSU Health NEW ORLEANS School of Public Health

Letter from the President

Hello all,
I hope everyone is ready for Jazz Fest! I know the school year is coming to a close, and stresses are rising. Remember that there are resources within our school to help cope with stress and other factors influencing your mental and physical health. Just let me know if you have any questions.

Elections are next week on Thursday at noon! You must come to the meeting to submit your vote.

The nominees and their descriptions will be sent out first thing next week!

I hope everyone has a wonderful weekend!

As always, let me

N.O.W.S. Outreach Program (New Orleans Women's Shelter Outreach)

Want to work with women and kids? N.O.W.S. Outreach is an Albert Schweitzer Fellowship and IPISA-approved program founded by medical students in 2015. Our mission is to empower the women and children at the New Orleans Women's and Children's Shelter (NOWS) to be proactive with their health and wellness by providing health education and physician-student run health clinics. Join almost 200 volunteers from all of the LSU professional schools, including Xavier pharmacy school, to teach health education programs, lead and create new programs, work at the monthly clinics, or participate on committees.

If interested, email to NOW-Soutreach@gmail.com get on our email list.
