

Example of Foundational Courses for Bachelor of Science degree:

Core Courses	Semester	Year	Credits
English Composition	Fall	Freshman	3
General Biology	Fall	Freshman	3
College Algebra	Fall	Freshman	3
Historical Survey of the Arts	Fall	Freshman	3
Elementary French I	Fall	Freshman	3
Introductory Sociology	Spring	Freshman	3
General Biology	Spring	Freshman	3
Introduction to Statistical Analysis	Spring	Freshman	3
Elementary French II	Spring	Freshman	3
General Elective	Spring	Freshman	3
Introduction to Environmental Science	Fall	Sophomore	3
Gender, Race and Nation	Fall	Sophomore	3
Public Speaking	Fall	Sophomore	3
Contemporary Global Issues	Fall	Sophomore	3
General Elective	Fall	Sophomore	3
English Composition	Spring	Sophomore	3
Microorganisms and Man	Spring	Sophomore	3
Introduction to Modern World Literature	Spring	Sophomore	3
General Elective	Spring	Sophomore	3
General Elective	Spring	Sophomore	3
Total Credit Hours			60

Admission to the BS program is open to all persons who meet the admission requirements and qualifications; ideally, students will apply for admission to the BS Public Health program in their sophomore year after completing three semesters of full-time study (or its equivalence) at any accredited campus.