

THE SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH AND THE
SECTION OF COMMUNITY AND POPULATION
MEDICINE PRESENT:

ETHICAL DISTRIBUTION OF RESOURCES DURING COVID-19

MONDAY, APRIL 27
12PM
ZOOM

Our panel will provide unique perspectives on ethics and allocation of resources during our health crisis. The discussion will highlight health laws, crisis standards of care of people with disabilities, clinical experiences of front-line physicians, and racial equity.

Questions to the panel may be submitted in advance here.

Questions will also be accepted during the seminar.