Denise Danos, PhD

PERSONAL STATEMENT

I am an Assistant Professor of Research in Behavioral and Community Health Sciences with experience in both academic and government sectors. My focus is experimental design and data analysis in observational human subjects' research, with expertise in large scale data collection and consolidation, generalized linear models, and multilevel models. As an academic researcher, I have focused on leveraging contemporary population-based data sources and applied statistical methodology to further the understanding of area-based social determinants of health disparities. In addition to public health research, I collaborate with the School of Medicine, providing statistical support for research. In this role, I consult with surgeons regarding study design, power and sample size calculation, statistical analyses and dissemination of results. I am proficient in SAS and R statistical software.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

- 2019 Postdoctoral Fellowship
Stanley S. Scott Cancer Center, New Orleans, LA
- 2016 Doctor of Philosophy, Biostatistics
Louisiana State University Health Sciences Center, New Orleans, LA
- 2007 Master of Applied Statistics
Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, LA
- 2004 Bachelor of Science, Mathematics
Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, LA

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- 2019 – Present Assistant Professor
Behavioral and Community Health Sciences, School of Public Health
Louisiana State University Health Sciences Center, New Orleans, LA
- 2016-2019 Postdoctoral Research Fellow
Stanley S. Scott Cancer Center, School of Medicine
Louisiana State University Health Sciences Center, New Orleans, LA
- 2010-2015 Graduate Research Assistant
Biostatistics, School of Public Health
Louisiana State University Health Sciences Center, New Orleans, LA
- 2007-2011 Statistical Analyst
IEM Inc.
Baton Rouge, LA
